AMY DEE, is recognized by audiences across the country as a master storyteller and brilliant comedian. Her message and music rise above the boundaries of gender, age, and occupation. Amy's hilarious stories coupled with valuable brain and behavior content propels audiences to live, act, and work better. Her authentic spirit and down to earth approach have made her a sought-after speaker throughout the United States.

Amy's background is as diverse as her audiences. She once ran a non-profit where she managed five hundred volunteers and organized multiple fundraisers that culminated in an eight-hour telethon.

Amy lived in Norway from 1994-2003, and while learning to speak, read and write in Norwegian, she started a photo calendar business in her home. Within two years, her company grew to become the biggest producer of photo calendars in Scandinavia. Amy's company employed eighteen people and acquired fifteen color copiers that lined the walls of her basement while pallets of paper filled her garage.

Amy returned to college at age forty-three to obtain her RN degree. She was nominated for Nurse of the Year on three separate occasions during her nine-year practice as a Psychiatric RN. Amy has been a stand-up comic and a voice-over artist for radio. She is the author of three books, and continues to write hilarious song parodies.

Amy is married to Steve, her Prince Charming. Her greatest source of pride remains in watching her two beautiful grown up daughters, Christine, and Sofi navigate the world.

ROBERT GRIMMER, MS, LCPC, CRADC, is a master's level graduate from the SIU Rehabilitation Counseling program. He is the clinical supervisor for the Men's Adult and Co-occurring residential programs at Gateway Foundation in Carbondale, and in the past was a family therapist at Gateway.
